SUBJECT: Special Investigator Pilot Project

In April of 1998, the Division of Child Support (DCS) contracted with the Kentucky Attorney General's Office to provide a special investigator in Eastern Kentucky and in Western Kentucky to assist with service process and to locate hidden assets of non custodial parents. This special pilot project has had great success in tackling two uniquely different areas of the state with very different child support climates. Investigators work closely with state child support staff and local officials to serve child support summonses and warrants, many of which have gone unserved by local law enforcement for several years. Due to the number of families and children who have already benefited from this pilot, DCS is planning to expand the program to other areas of the state.

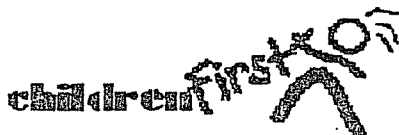

Original pilots include:

Kenneth Champion (Floyd DCS) - Elliott, Lawrence, Morgan, Menifee, Powell, Estill, Wolfe, Lee, Magoffin, Johnson, Martin, Owsley, Breathitt, Floyd, Pike, Letcher, Knott, and Perry counties.

Robert Hobbs (Marshall DCS) - Union, Crittenden, Caldwell, Hopkins, Muhlenberg, Simpson, Logan, Todd, Christian, Trigg, Calloway, Graves, Fulton, Hickman, Carlisle, Ballard, McCracken, Marshall, Lyon and Livingston counties.

New pilots include:

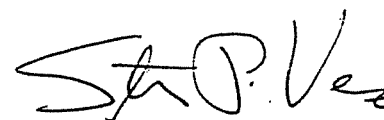

Ronnie Turner (3/8/99) (Pulaski DCS) - Jackson, Clay, Leslie, Harlan, Rockcastle, Laurel, Knox, Bell, Pulaski, Whitley, Adair, Russell, Wayne, McCreary, Cumberland, and Clinton counties.
